

Dear Partners,

We are pleased to announce the next call of our Non-EU Teaching Mobility Program.

This program supports short-term teaching visits of faculty members of our partner universities outside Europe to the University of Vienna:

15 - 90 days guest professorship

Work contract with the University of Vienna

Reimbursement of travel costs up to € 2,000

Language of instruction: English or, exceptionally, in language teaching programmes the specific language of instructions

We would like to invite you to promote this program among interested faculty members of your university.

The next application deadline for courses planned between March 2018 and June 2018 is 1 July 2017.

The call has been published on the following website:

<http://international.univie.ac.at/incoming-staff/teachers/non-eu-teaching-mobility/>

Internationale Beziehungen » Non-EU Teaching Mobility

international.univie.ac.at

Non-EU Teaching Mobility . Short-term teaching visits for faculty members of Non-EU partner universities of the University of Vienna . Call for application:

Interviews with professors who attended the program can be found here:

Wenxu Chen \(Nankai University, China\)

Prof. Richard Weber \(Universidad de Chile\)

Please do not hesitate to contact Mr. Maximilian Kudler or Ms. Brigitta Moravec of the International Office of the University of Vienna (email: staffmobility@univie.ac.at) if you have any questions.

If you are not the right contact person at your university in this matter, please forward this mail to your colleagues in charge.

We are convinced that this program will strengthen the co-operation between our universities and looking forward to receiving applications from researchers of your university.

Best regards,

Heinz Faßmann
Vice-Rector for Research and International Affairs

Lottelis Moser
Head International Office

International Office

University of Vienna

Universitätsring 1, 1010 Vienna

T +43-1-4277-182 01

<http://international.univie.ac.at>