

The Urban Studies Program and Department of Sociology at Brown University are seeking a tenure-track Assistant Professor in the area of urban sociology.

We are interested in candidates prepared to teach urban field work, and comparative urban sociology or cities in International perspective.

The position is subject to budgetary approval. Applicants must have completed the Ph.D. prior to the time of hiring and provide evidence of potential excellence in research, teaching, and professional service.

The successful applicant will hold a joint appointment and equal teaching and administrative responsibilities in Urban Studies and Sociology.

Applications should include (1) a cover letter describing research completed and planned, (2) a curriculum vitae, (3) a writing sample, (4) a sample syllabus, and (5) three letters of recommendation.

Brown University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All applications received by September 30, 2010 will receive further consideration.

Start date: July 1, 2011

Please send applications to: Urban Sociology Search Committee, Box 1833, Brown University, Providence, RI 02912 USA Inquiries to: Heather\_Parker@brown.edu or Hilary\_Silver@brown.edu