

Highlights of World Cities Summit 2012

Award Ceremony and Banquet

On 2 Jul evening, the World City Prize and Water Prize Laureates' achievements were celebrated at the Lee Kuan Yew Prize Award Ceremony and Banquet.

More

Prize Lecture

"We have many big problems to solve. Government plays an important role, but it's the people who will ensure this initiative continues after this mayor and this administration leave office." – Adrian Benepe, Commissioner of NYC Parks & Recreation at the Prize Lecture

More

Prize Forum

The Prize Forum, held on the second day of the World Cities Summit, offered the cities selected for Special Mention, a dedicated platform to share their distinctive programmes, from transport to housing, quality of life, and environment.

More

Call for Nominations

Starting from the 2014 Prize, only nominations for “city” (previously for “individual” and “organisation” categories), will be accepted.

Message from Nominating Committee Chairman

Nomination for the 2014 Prize is now open and online Stage A nominations will close on 29 March 2013.

More

Cities in Transformation Publication

Cities in Transformation: Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize is a new publication presenting the key lessons and insights from the Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize Laureates and Special Mentions in 2010 and 2012.

The book is now on sale and retails at SGD60 (incl. GST).

More

www.leekuaneyewworldcityprize.com.sg

Copyright © 2012 Urban Redevelopment Authority. All rights reserved