Have UN Member States listened to cities in the latest draft of the New Urban Agenda for Habitat III?

Have UN Member States listened to cities in the latest draft of the New Urban Agenda for Habitat III?

25/07/2016 The latest draft of the New Urban Agenda reveals that the voices of cities and territories are having an impact, but Habitat III must go further if it is not to be a missed opportunity to harness urbanization for sustainable development. We invite these local networks to celebrate their influence on the new draft of the Agenda and to continue the social media campaign for states to #Listen2Cities at the PrepCom3 in Surabaya. (+)
