

Dear HIC Members, Friends and Partners,

Please find below an email that we have received from our colleagues of the Hub for Housing Justice Secretariat detailing the publication drafted to develop 3 position papers by the four working groups that convene around each of the Hub's propositions.

HIC-HLRN has been contributing to this important work.

We wish you good reading !
Best regards,

Dear colleagues and friends,

It is our pleasure to share with you the published 2025 Housing Justice Provocations Series, which are now live on the Hub for Housing Justice website. The Provocations are composed of the following documents:

- Transforming life stories: why we need anti-discriminatory housing policies and practice, and how we can get there
- Radically democratic housing in hard times: towards a collective glossary
- Housing as infrastructure for more caring, fairer and sustainable cities and human settlements
- A map of imaginations for broader housing futures

We want to express our deepest gratitude to you for working so hard to develop these provocations, and providing such rich insights to bring the housing justice propositions to life. We hope you enjoyed the exchanges as much as we did, and that this series proves useful to you and your partners.

You can read the Hub news story on the Provocations here. Please save the date for the official launch of the Provocations Series, which will take place on Wednesday September 24th at 13h00 UK (14h00 CET) – you will receive a save-the-date calendar invitation shortly, and we'll share further details in the upcoming weeks.

We (very strongly!) encourage you to share the Provocations Series and the information on the launch event with your networks (watch out for the Hub's LinkedIn posts), and let us know if you have any suggestions on how to publicize them further. Attached you will find some social media assets that you are encouraged to use on social media platforms to spread the word about the provocations. Below the email is also a template post that you are free to copy or adapt as you wish!

Once again congratulations, and thank you all for being part of the Hub for Housing Justice community!
Sincerely,

Hub for Housing Justice Secretariat

The @Hub for Housing Justice has launched its first collection of collaborative publications: the 2025 series of Provocations to inspire and nurture housing justice efforts. <https://www.hubforhousingjustice.org/news/hub-publishes-its-first-housing-justice-provocations-series>

This series of Provocations reflects the key ideas that emerged from exchanges between members of the Hub, centred around the Hub's four propositions for housing justice: <https://www.hubforhousingjustice.org/hub-approach>

The Provocations showcase through stories, discussions, and concrete examples from communities across the world how applying a justice lens offers a key opportunity to transform housing systems for the better.

[ORG] is a proud partner/ally of the Hub for Housing Justice, a collaborative initiative of civil society networks and research organisations that aims to transform housing systems by promoting anti-discriminatory, radically democratic, sustainable and caring housing futures.

You can read more and download all the provocations here: <https://www.hubforhousingjustice.org/hub-approach#housing-justice-provocations>

Learn more about our housing justice work.

IIED is a company limited by a guarantee and incorporated in England. Reg. No 2188452. Registered office: 44 Southampton Buildings, London WC2A 1AP, UK. VAT Reg. No. GB 440 4948 50. Charity No. 800066. OSCR No 039864. IIED is recognised as an international organisation by the OECD Development Assistance Committee.

--

HIC-GS Team

Habitat International Coalition (HIC) General Secretariat

e-mail: gs@hic-net.org

Website: www.hic-net.org

