

Visiting Assistant or Associate Professor of Urban Studies

By UAA Executive Office on Jan 20, 2016 12:25 pm

The Center for Urban Engagement (CUE) at Wheaton College invites applications for a half-time appointment as Visiting Assistant or Associate Professor of Urban Studies for 2016-2017, with possible extension for 2017-2018.

Applicants should have training in the social sciences as well as research and teaching interests in cities and urban life. A Ph.D. in a related field is preferred; ABD candidates will be considered. Teaching experience is strongly preferred, and the successful applicant must be able to teach an interdisciplinary course on Chicago.

The successful applicant will carry some pro-rated programmatic responsibilities in CUE, such as recruitment, advising, and assessment, and will teach courses on the college's main campus (in Wheaton) and at the "Wheaton in Chicago" program location in Chicago's Uptown neighborhood.

Applicants should submit a letter of inquiry describing teaching experience and commitment to the Christian faith along with a current curriculum vitae to Dr. Noah Toly, Director of the Center for Urban Engagement (noah.toly@wheaton.edu). CUE will request additional material (application form, transcripts, letters of recommendation, and essays) from promising candidates.

Review of completed applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

CUE promotes just, sustainable, and flourishing urban communities through the academic study of cities and transformational experiences of urban life. CUE has five core programs, thirteen core and supporting faculty, and an active network of advisors, including our Community Engagement Council. For more information on CUE, see www.wheaton.edu/CUE. It contributes to the College's strategic priorities to globalize the Wheaton education and deepen ethnic diversity.

Wheaton College is an evangelical Protestant Christian liberal arts college whose faculty and staff affirm a Statement of Faith and adhere to the lifestyle expectations of the Wheaton College Community Covenant. The College complies with federal and state guidelines for nondiscrimination in employment. Women and minority candidates are strongly encouraged to apply. Read more about Wheaton College and its programs at www.wheaton.edu.