

Dear Colleagues,

As a reminder, the Hainan University-Arizona State University Joint International Tourism College (HAITC) is seeking five faculty members to start in fall 2019. These faculty members are hired by Arizona State University (ASU):

1. One full time 12-month clinical associate/full professor and assistant dean in tourism management in the School of Community Resources and Development.
2. One full-time, 9-month assistant professor in tourism and/or recreation management in the School of Community Resources and Development.
3. One full-time, 9-month lecturer in tourism management in the School of Community Resources and Development.
4. One full-time, 9-month lecturer in parks and recreation management in the School of Community Resources and Development.
5. One full-time, 9 month lecturer in public administration in the School of Public Affairs.

These positions will be permanently based in Haikou, Hainan, China.

The School of Community Resources and Development (SCRD) is one of four schools in the Watts College of Public Service and Community Solutions (<https://publicservice.asu.edu>), a vibrant community of active scholars committed to excellence in education and innovative responses to collective problems. SCRD is ranked #7 in the world and #2 in the U.S. for Hospitality, Leisure, Sport and Tourism according to the Center for World University Rankings. The mission of SCRD is to co-create transformative solutions that enhance the social, cultural, environmental, and economic well-being of communities. (See: <http://scrd.asu.edu/>)

The School of Public Affairs (SPA) is one of four schools in the Watts College of Public Service and Community Solutions (<https://publicservice.asu.edu>), a vibrant community of active scholars committed to excellence in education and innovative responses to collective problems. SPA is ranked #9 in the country, according to U.S. News and World Report and #5 in research, according to the Shanghai Academic Ranking of World Universities. SPA's mission is to understand and address society's grandest challenges in public management, policy, and governance. We seek to maximize our impact through rigorous transdisciplinary research, project-based education, collaborative and inclusive community engagement, experiential learning, and innovative solutions. (See: <http://spa.asu.edu/>)

Hainan University (HNU) is a comprehensive provincial university in Haikou, Hainan. It is one of the "211 Project" key universities. HAITC is an innovative joint college and the first domestic Sino-foreign cooperative tourism institution approved by China's Ministry of Education. Currently offering three dual degree programs, the college began in Fall 2017 and now hosts over 500 students. Courses are taught by both HNU and ASU faculty.

The appointment will begin with a one week orientation at ASU's Downtown Phoenix campus toward the end of August 2019.

For more details about the positions and application instructions, please visit <https://publicservice.asu.edu/content/jobs>

Interviews will be held at ASU's Downtown Phoenix campus. The first review of applications will begin on March 15, 2019, 5:00pm Arizona time; and every week thereafter until the search is closed. Please feel free to contact Search Committee Chair Dr. Kathleen Andereck (kandereck@asu.edu) with questions.

Regards,

Gyan

Gyan Nyaupane, Ph. D.

Professor, School of Community Resources & Development

Senior Sustainability Scientist, Julie Ann Wrigley Global Institute of Sustainability

Honors Faculty, Barrett Honors College

Arizona State University

411 N. Central Ave., Ste. 550, Phoenix, AZ 85004-0690, USA

Ph (602)496-0166, Fax (602)496-0953

Email: gyan@asu.edu

Erskine Fellow, University of Canterbury, New Zealand

Editor-in-Chief, Tourism Review International

Google Scholar Profile