

Climate Justice Co-learning Space

Session 4:

Pluralizing, targeting and crafting together our advocacy strategies and messages for climate justice

Habitat International Coalition
Coalición Internacional del Habitat
Coalition Internationale de l'Habitat
التحالف الدولي للموئل
अंतरराष्ट्रीय पर्यावरण मंडल

Thursday, 26th October 2023

5pm-7pm South Africa Time (see your local time here: www.bit.ly/4cj-time)

Register here: www.bit.ly/4Cjregister

Speakers

Patricia Wattimena - Identifying the existing advocacy spaces based on the history of the struggle of civil society organizations and advocacy opportunities in climate justice and their intersection with Habitat.

coordinator the Environment and ESCR Working Group at ESCR-net. She is a young Indigenous feminist with over 14 years of contributions to the collective struggles of Indigenous and feminist movements from the local to global level Hala N. Barakat - Identifying the common point across the regions in order to launch the HIC Climate Justice advocacy agenda.

Hala N. Barakat is an archaeobotanist, with a Ph.D. in Paleoecology from the University of Aix-Marseille III, France. She is currently a freelance consultant on the environment, heritage and food history in Egypt.

Adriana Allen - Advancing Climate Justice: Creating a cross-regional advocacy agenda

HIC President, Professor of Development Planning and Urban Sustainability at the Bartlett Development Planning Unit at University College London

Supported by /
Avec le soutien de /
Apoyado por

Agència Catalana
de Cooperació
al Desenvolupament

misereor
GEMEINSAM GLOBAL GERECHT