“My aim was to design a building where the existence of the different sectors was different and varied and always superbly unified by a dominant element common to all these sectors. This dominance driven by the variety of the work and the subject, although having a common link, will give students the most suitable environment that their personalities see fit to create, providing them with space both for isolation and for socialisation.” – Viana de Lima

from The List Álvaro Siza / Rare

This book is stated by Álvaro Siza as being one of the first he bought on Architecture. A pocket-size, refined, strongly illustrated edition, seemingly made as a “manual”. Published in 1949, this book presents a most vast and solid collection on unknown and outstanding modern architecture. Alberto Sartoris (1901-1998) was co-founder, with Rietveld and Le Corbusier, of the Congrès Internationaux d'Architecture Moderne (CIAM), and also friend of Fernando Távora who presented him to Siza, making some early exchanges between Portugal and Switzerland.
