EDA, Examples of Architecture

International review of architecture

The magazine EdA Examples of Architecture, with the requirement of 'peer review', was created to disseminate scientific papers published by universities and research centres, in order to focus attention on the critical reading of projects. The intention is to create a place for a cultural debate on interdisciplinary topics, with the aim to investigate issues related to different fields of study ranging from history, restoration, architectural and structural design, technology, landscape and the city.

Submission Guidelines EDA Examples of Architecture

Authors: EDA, Esempi di Architettura on.line invites submissions from researchers in architecture, restoration, history of architecture, civil engineering and related disciplines.

Type of Articles: Only research articles will be published, no book or exhibition reviews.

Topics: Contributions on any topic in architecture, restoration, history of architecture, civil engineering and related disciplines are welcome. However, articles should be original and innovative, offering new research material and/or new perspectives.
